Ap Morgan, Jezreel, Goginan: Myranwy Jones (secretary.)

At the outset, the Chairman referred to the loss sustained by the death of Mr. R. E. Jones, J.P., a generous supporter of the Infirmary, and on his proposition a vote of sympathy with the bereaved family was passed.—The Chairman, Canon Williams, and Mr. Arthur Jones were asked to represent the governors at the funeral the following day.

The Chairman also referred to the absence of Alderman C. M. Williams who had worked for the Infirmary all his life, and was now a patient there. He was glad to say that Alderman Williams was progressing very favourably.—It was decided to send Alderman Williams a message of sympathy, with an expression of hope for his speedy recovery.

THE PRESIDENT'S LETTER.

The Chairman read a letter from Dr. Edward Roberts, Aberlleflyn, president of the Infirmary, regretting he was not well enough to attend the meeting. He was exceedingly pleased the Infirmary was doing such excellent work in relieving suffering, and its flourishing financial position showed the public appreciated the good work being done.

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

Mr. S. D. Evans, of the National Provincial Bank, presented the balance sheet for the year 1927, showing total receipts of £3,769 5s. 2d. The chief items of income were the following:—Subscriptions, £489 7s. 6d.; donations, £88 5s.; interest on investments, £192 19s. 2d.; workmen's contributions, £191 9s. 1d.; collecting boxes, £25 2s. 2d.; entertainments and collections, £944 17s. 7d.; payments from patients in public and private wards, etc., £1,186 5s. 9d.; church collections, £306 0s. 4d.; Downie's Bequest, £275. Chief items of expenditure: Provisions, £926 12s. 11d.; surgery and dispensary, £383 11s. 2d.; X Ray appliances, £69 17s. 10d.; domestic, £52 12s. 9d.; fuel and lighting, £561 12s. 7d.; salaries and wages, £1,152 14s. 5d.; miscellaneous, £221 5s. 11d.; and contingency fund, £350. There was a sum of £50 8s. 1d. in the Treasurer's hands at the end of the year.

Mr. D. C. Roberts, chairman of the finance committee, said the annual subscriptions showed a decrease, and made an appeal for more subscribers. Interest from investments was increasing, and he asked those who were turning to their solicitors to make their wills to please remember the Infirmary. (Laughter.) Workmen's contributions was a new item during the past few years, and was steadily increasing. There was a reduction of £399 in expenditure during the past year, chiefly due to the fact that they had a big stock on hand in the surgery and dispensary department at the beginning of last year, but which would have to be renewed this year. To meet this and any other extraordinary expenditure they had provided a contingency fund of £350. By the exercise of economy there was a reduction in the cost of coal, gas, and lighting, and although there had been an increase in the number of patients there was, thanks to the economy exercised by the Matron and staff a decrease in the cost of provisions. The building fund account showed a sum of £695 due to the bank, but it was hoped to be able to wipe that off in a few years's time with the contributions received from Downie's fund.—Mr. Arthur Jones, Midland Bank, having seconded, the adoption of the financial statement was unanimously agreed to.

ANNUAL REVIEW.

The Chairman, in reviewing the work for the past year, said the efforts made to get the Infirmary affiliated to some larger hospital so that it could be recognised as a training centre for nurses had failed. The other alternative was for the Infirmary itself to provide accommodation for fifty beds and thus become qualified for recognition as a training school for nurses. At the present time they had under forty beds. The management committee had devoted itself to the question of extending the present buildings, and Mr. Bassett, the architect, had prepared plans of an extension for 19 beds with the necessary bathrooms and sanitary accommodation. The idea was to have another large ward over the women's ward, which would entail the provision of a passenger lift. The estimated cost was about £6,000; but that was only one item. With 19 or 20 more beds they would have to provide additional nurses and domestic staff, and it was estimated that the increase in maintenance charges would be £1,200 to £1,500 a year. So the matter was one which required very careful consideration. There were occasions when the accommodation at the Infirmary was insufficient—it was so at the present time—but that was not so all the year round. They must, however, be prepared to consider the question, and the committee of management would be glad to have the opinion of the governors upon it. Regarding the question of the recognition of the services of the honorary medical staff and the generosity of benefactors, the committee of management had decided to place two panels in the main corridor on which the names could be recorded. The panels were to be of mahogany, and the lettering would be done in gold leaf. The Chairman expressed warm thanks to Mr. Ben Davies, Llys Teg, Pontrhydfendigaid, for having overhauled the X Ray apparatus at the Infirmary. He also spoke in highly appreciative terms of the work of the Linen Guild. The number of in-patients for the year at 412 had practically doubled within the last six years. Of these 187 were from Aberystwyth and district, 181 from other parts of the county, and 44 from outside the county. Of the 412 patients, 179 were treated without charge of any kind. Twenty-six ex-service men or their dependents were also treated without charge, but a contribution of £20 a year was made by the local branch of the British Legion, while 32 contributing members or their dependents also received treatment. The number of operations performed was 346, compared with 153 in 1922. The number of out-patients treated was 838, involving 3,309 attendances. Among the donations during the year was one of £150 from Miss S. M. Rowlands to endow a bed in the name of Blaenplwyf Chapel. Mrs. Eytton Morgan had undertaken to organise the collections of tinfoil, or silver paper. The Chairman expressed thanks to Miss Myfanwy Jones (secretary), the House Surgeon, Matron Humphreys, and the nursing staff for their indefatigable work on behalf of the institution.

THE PRESIDENT.

On the proposition of Mrs. Griffith, seconded by Mr. R.Y. Bickerstaff, Dr. Edward Roberts was unanimously re-elected president for the ensuing year.

MEDICAL STAFF.

The appointment of Dr. W. J. Lloyd as a member of the honorary medical staff was unanimously confirmed.

MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE.

Mrs. Griffith, Mr. E. E. Ellis, Rev. T. E. Roberts, Mr. R. Y. Bickerstaff, Major Mathias, and Rev. J. D. Evans were re-appointed members of the committee of management, and Lieut. Col. B. Taylor Lloyd was elected in place of the late Mr. R. E. Jones. It was also agreed that if and when Mrs. Griffith was appointed a trustee of Downies Bequest during the present year that her seat on the management committee be filled by the appointment of Mrs. Tom H. Edwards.

VOTES OF THANKS.

On the proposition of the Rev. T. E. Roberts, seconded by Mr. E. E. Ellis, Mr. Arthur Jones was re-elected hon-auditor and thanked for his past services.—Dr. Abraham Thomas, in moving a vote of thanks to the honorary medical staff, said very few had a fair conception of the amount of work done by them. As an example, he mentioned that on the previous Thursday week they started operating at nine a.m. and continued till two in the afternoon, and were at it again at night. Their work was becoming heavier owing to the high reputation they had established for themselves.—The Rev. J. D. Evans, in seconding, said whoever originated the idea of extending the Infirmary he could say that doctors were very heartily behind it, although it would mean more hard work for them.—Dr. Burrell, in acknowledging in the absence of Dr. David Ellis, said during last year they had an average of 22 beds occupied every day. Even with that number the internal arrangement was such that the Infirmary often appeared crowded. It was not an actual increase of beds they required so much as an increase of room so that they could use the beds they had. They had no special wards for patients who were noisy or very ill, no wards for septic cases, and no medical ward. It should be possible to so alter the internal arrangements that the treatment of the patients could be made easier, and that would be very much to their benefit and a great help to the medical and nursing staff.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks to the Chairman, proposed by Canon Williams.
